We want to help you and your customers have a mutual understanding of UltraGard® coverage in an unusual timing situation.

With most claims on financed equipment, it's easy to understand whether a claim is still under coverage. If your customer has a physical damage loss to their equipment when their financing is active with UltraGard coverage, the claim is valid. Because UltraGard coverage is tied to active financing, it ends when the equipment is paid off. That doesn't mean a customer can't still file a claim, however, if a loss occurs prior to the final payment. To put it another way, a claim filed after coverage ends is valid if the loss occurred before the final payment.

Keep in mind that if your customers would like to extend protection of their paid-off equipment previously financed by John Deere Financial, be sure to offer them SentryGuard™ equipment physical damage insurance. Endorsed by John Deere, our SentryGuard coverage helps protect against the same perils as UltraGard.

Additionally, remind your customers that with flooding occurring across the United States, we're proud to offer flood coverage through UltraGard. Plus, we can provide comprehensive coverage for Agricultural Management System (AMS) reactivation fees.

If you have any questions about UltraGard or SentryGuard coverage, we're here to assist you. Please contact John Deere Dealer Programs at 877-782-6873 or equipmentinsurance@sentry.com.
